SMART TRICK BUT IT FAILED. A Would-Be Train-Robber Cleverly Caught

by an Express Messenger. DEADWOOD, S. D., January 27.-A train robber named John Dalton was captured by one of the Northwestern Express messengers to-day. He had had himself expressed on the inside of a stuffed buffalo, but his game was spoiled by his removing one of the animal's glass eyes, through the socket of which he stuck a six-shooter covering the mesenger. The latter escaped from the -eadly range of the weapon and leaped upon the back of the stuffed animal. The back caved in and he dropped on the robber inside and sat on him until the next station was reached, when he was turned over to the authorities. The safe contained $50,000. Evidently Dalton had confederates who were to act on his signal. They have not yet been apprehended. red by one of the Northwestern Ex-
